

Philips and Earth Day Network Town Hall Event

December 10, 2010
8:45 AM EST

Atlanta Charter Middle School
820 Essie Ave.
Atlanta, GA 30316
(678) 904-0051

Panel Discussion on Sustainability and Livable Cities

As key participants in the energy consumption dialogue, Philips SimplyHealthy@Schools initiative and the Earth Day Network's Green Schools Campaign are joining together to convene a town hall discussion on the importance of energy efficiency and sustainability in schools and livable cities. The event will announce the installation of Philips energy-efficient lighting and implementation of Earth Day Network's curriculum to encourage sustainable energy practices. This event will be held at Atlanta Charter Middle School in Atlanta, GA, a community that has embraced the sustainability movement and whose leaders have encouraged sustainable efforts in their community.

Live Webcast

The event will be available for viewing on Earth Day Television:
<http://www.earthday.org/atlanta>

Moderator

Matt Underwood, Principal,
Atlanta Charter Middle School

Panel

Ed Crawford, CEO,
Philips Lighting Company, North America

Sean Miller, Education Director,
Earth Day Network

Mandy Mahoney, Director of Sustainability,
City of Atlanta

Susan Cannon, Teacher,
Atlanta Charter Middle School

PHILIPS
sense and simplicity